

Kefalonia Route

Preveza

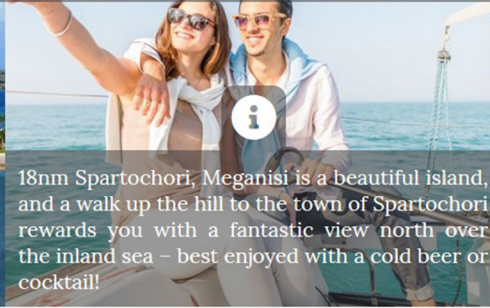

Sunday

Fly UK to Preveza and transfer to Preveza town marina for embarkation. Just 15 minutes from the airport, it couldn't be easier to start your holiday.

Spartochori

Monday

18nm Spartochori, Meganisi is a beautiful island, and a walk up the hill to the town of Spartochori rewards you with a fantastic view north over the inland sea – best enjoyed with a cold beer or cocktail!

Fiskardho

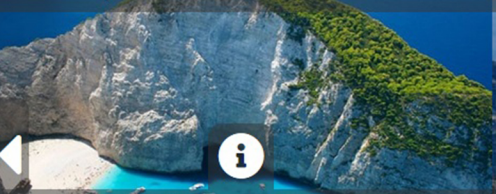

Tuesday

17nm Often referred to as the "St Tropez of the Ionian" Fiskardho, is a chic little town on the north side of Kefalonia offering a stylish evening out in one of the excellent harbour side restaurants.

Aghios Nikolaos

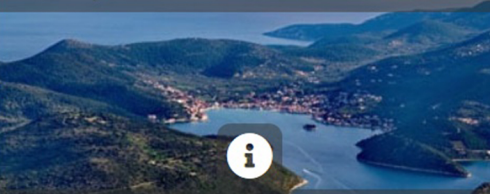

Wednesday

35nm Aghios Nikolaos is a great place from which to catch the daily boats around to the famous shipwreck bay, one of the most photographed spots in Greece.

Vathi

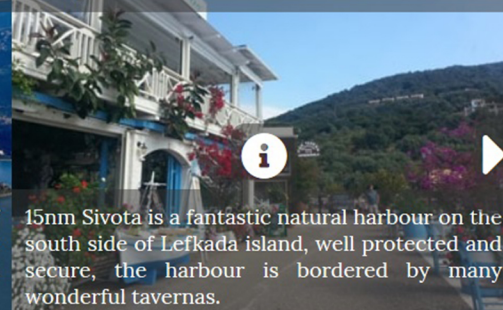

Thursday

35nm One of our favourite stops is the capital of Ithaca, set deep into the bay. Wander the backstreets of the town to discover some great little bars and restaurants.

Sivota

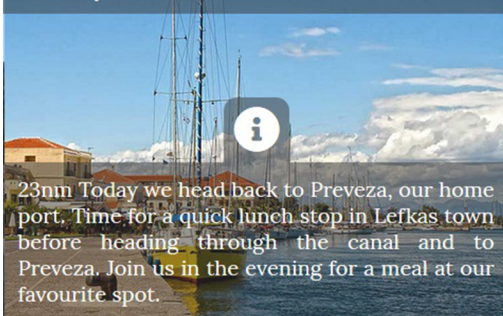

Friday

15nm Sivota is a fantastic natural harbour on the south side of Lefkada island, well protected and secure, the harbour is bordered by many wonderful tavernas.

Preveza

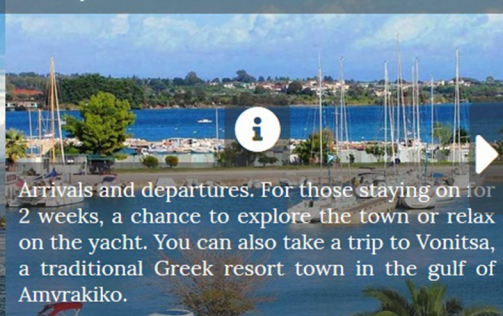

Saturday

23nm Today we head back to Preveza, our home port. Time for a quick lunch stop in Lefkas town before heading through the canal and to Preveza. Join us in the evening for a meal at our favourite spot.

Preveza

Sunday

Arrivals and departures. For those staying on for 2 weeks, a chance to explore the town or relax on the yacht. You can also take a trip to Vonitsa, a traditional Greek resort town in the gulf of Amvrakiko.
